

Butler, Jennie C

From: Stella M. Capek [capek@hendrix.edu]
Sent: Monday, August 16, 1999 7:36 PM
To: fdadockets@oc.fda.gov
Subject: human antibiotics in livestock feed

I am writing you to encourage you strongly not to permit human antibiotics in livestock feed (docket #99PO485). The FDA is responsible for protecting our health, and there is plenty of evidence that the overuse of antibiotics is having an impact on the effectiveness of these on treating human diseases. We need to keep them out of animal feed, which only compounds the problem.

Sincerely,
Stella M Capek

99P-0485

EC35